

2017 Fall AirWaterGas Seminar Series

Tuesday 4-5 PM, SEEC N126

Date	Speaker and Affiliation	Title
Sept. 12	Rene Nsanzineza	Impacts of Future Electricity Generation on Greenhouse Gases and Air Quality in the Rocky Mountain Region
	Kurban Sitterly	Methods for Characterization and Treatment of Hydraulic Fracturing Produced Water
Oct. 10	Chris Weible & Tanya Heikila	Shifts and Stability in Politics over Oil and Gas Development in Colorado
	Joanna Casey	Improving Low-Cost Measurement Techniques to Investigate the Connections Between Fossil Fuels and Air Quality: From Oil and Gas Production to Home Heating
Nov. 14	Stefan Schwietzke	Isotopic Constraints on Global Atmospheric Methane Sources and Sinks: a Critical Assessment of Recent Findings and New Data
	Greg Lackey	Assessing the Frequency of Oil and Gas Well Integrity Loss in Colorado Through Measurements of Surface Casing Pressure
Dec. 12	John Stults	Utilizing the FracFocus Database to Find Spatial and Temporal Trends in the Use of Fracturing Compounds of Concern
	Lisa McKenzie	TBA

Refreshments will be provided

Have any questions? Please contact Zachary Linden at zachary.linden@colorado.edu